Dan Busken is President & CEO of Busken Bakery, Inc., one of the largest independent retail bakeries in the United States, with 11 retail locations and 200 employees.

Dan Busken represents the fourth generation of the family to lead the company, which was founded in 1928 by Joseph and Daisie Busken. One of six children in the Busken family, he attended the University of Cincinnati, intending to forge a career in construction management. Busken earned his degree in 2002 and went to work for Megen Construction, where he spent time working on high-profile projects such as the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center and the Great American Ball Park.

Dan serves on several boards including Retail Bakers of America, Greater Cincinnati Retail Bakers and NuWay Foundation. Dan is also bilingual and has spent time working with Operation Serve International in Mexico City.

With Dan's influence, Busken Bakery, Inc., has adopted NuWay as their corporate charity. With Dan's international experience, he will make an excellent companion for Americans travelling to Nigeria on behalf of NuWay.
