Patti Minniear is owner of Patti Minniear Interiors. Her passion for people and beautiful things go hand-n-hand. This could be a new sofa or a clean glass of water. Enter NuWay! It came though a simple meeting with Evans Nwankwo, Chairman and Founder of Nuway Foundation. A passion for the people living in the village of Awa, Nigeria was formed.

Patti has taken on the role of team leader for the NuWay Foundation's Community and Health program in Awa. She took her first trip to Awa, Nigeria in the summer of 2009. She saw firsthand the desperate need for everyday items, like water and text books as well as the immediate need for health care.

Patti is committed to spreading the word about Nuway and the work being preformed to transform lives because no matter how small the donation, it's huge to those we touch.

*We can make a difference, together.
One person, one family, one village, at a time.*
